

Biography of Mr Pang Yiu Hung

Mr. PANG Yiu-hung graduated from the University of Hong Kong and has been a member of IET since December 1991. He is now a Chief Engineer of the Electrical and Mechanical Services Department, Hong Kong SAR Government and is responsible for providing one-stop comprehensive electrical, mechanical, electronic and building services O&M and project services for engineering facilities of the disciplined services, Transport Department and Highways Department. He was also responsible for enforcement of the Electricity Ordinance and services to the airport, hospitals and engineering facilities in his previous postings. He is now a Committee Member of the Power and Energy Section Committee and a Co-opted Member of the IET HK Branch Committee.