

Biography - Mr. WONG Wing Fai, Indi

Mr. Wong received his Master Degree from Middlesex University UK. He is now serving as a Senior Technical Officer in Water Supplies Department Project Management Division. And is responsible for managing the information services for project management function. Before he transferred to this office, Mr. Wong was working in M&E Project and Maintenance Divisions of the department for over 15 years. There he obtained experience in construction of HV pumping plant, electrical services installation, control and instrumentation system.

Mr. Wong served members of IET Hong Kong (formerly IEE Hong Kong) since year 2000. He joined the Informatics and Control Technologies (ICT) Section (formerly Computing and Control Specialised Section) for 9 years starting at session 2000/01. He became the Chairman of ICT Section in session 2004/05 and 2005/06. He is now the Past Chairman of the ICT Section and supporting the activities of Pearl River Delta Development Committee which is under UK Headquarters. Mr. Wong has actively involved in organising various technical activities including the International Conference in Informatics and Control Technologies at Shenzhen (ICT2006). Also during his terms of office, he represented the Institution to sit in external working groups regarding the IT certification in Mainland and IT professional registration in HK.